"Fram, ursul polar" (Fram, the Polar Bear) by Cezar Petrescu- A short review by Vlajă Ligia, form 7, Secondary School Măgura, Buzău, Romania.

"Fram, ursul polar" by Cezar Petrescu is a heartwarming and exciting adventure story perfect for 7th graders. It follows the incredible life of Fram, a polar bear who is born in captivity but eventually finds his way to the Arctic and back to human companionship. What makes this book so engaging is Fram himself. He's a lovable character, full of curiosity and a strong connection to both the human and animal worlds. The story beautifully portrays his journey of discovery, his interactions with different people and animals,
